Lewis Says Health May Keep trol. Him Out of Senate Race

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Senator Lewis, of Illinois, Democratic whip of the Senate, said to-day that in view of his impaired health he does not expect to be a candidate for reflection next year or for the Chicago Mayoralty in 1919.

"My health is so broken now," he said, "that it is unlikely I shall be a candidate to succeed myself. I do not make this announcement as definite, because no one can tell what a year will bring forth. The duties of my position have weighed heavily upon me since the war brok, out, and my health is suffering as a result."

Porto Rican Legislature

SAN JUAN, P. E., Oct. 14.—Withdrawal of the Republican members of both houses from the first Porto Rican Legislature composed of American citizations was averted yesterday, when the House of Delegates, with the Unionists in control, refused to accept the report of the Committee on Elections ousting Delegate Valdes, a Republican. Instead the minority report, permitting Valdes to retain his seat, was adopted.

Leaders of both parties admit a political crisis thereby has been averted.

In cases of total disability, the monthly compensation runs from a minimum of $30, if the injured man has neither wife nor child living, to a maximum of $75 if he has a wife and three or more children living, with $10 a month extra if he has a widewed mother dependent upon him. When the disabled man constantly requires a nurse or attendant, $20 monthly may be added. If the disability is due to the loss of both feet, both arms, or total blindness of both eys, or if he is helpless and permanently bedridden. $100 monthly is granted. In cases of partial disability, the compensation is determined according to a schedule to be based upon the extent of the impairment of earning capacity. Reasonable governmental medical, surgical and hospital services and supplies, such as artificial limbs and trusses, are also given. No compensation is payable for death of disabilities which do not occur prior to discharge or resignation, unless the insured within one year of the time of resignation is certified to have received injuries likely to result in death or disability.
